

June 6th - 7th

OUR OCEANS IN A CHANGING CLIMATE

Entertainment & Enlightenment Hosted By

Olympic Climate Action

Friday, June 6th, 7:30 ~ Admission $10

Featuring Dana Lyons

"A singer-songwriter from Bellingham in the Pete Seeger tradition... best known for 'Cows with Guns.'"

Elwha Klallam Heritage Training Center
Corner Peabody & 1st St., P.A.
(Seating is limited)

Saturday, June 7th, 10am-4pm ~ FREE all day
Port Angeles Waterfront Area

- P.A. Farmer's Market, 10am-12pm: Information & displays, Kids' craft table
- Feiro Marine Life Center, 10am-5pm: Free admission & tours and Kids' activities
- Hollywood Beach (all morning): Sand Castle Contest, judging at 12:15. Sand Castle Contest for Kids with prizes for Best sea creature, Best castle, and Best use of natural items found on the beach

The Landing Mall 2nd floor, 10am-4pm

- Olympic Coast National Marine Sanctuary "Discovery Room:" Open (and free) all day
- 2nd floor Conference Room:
- 11:00 Matt Krogh (ForestEthics, Bellingham) presents "How Fossil Fuel Exports Threaten our Marine Waters"
- 12:30 Hansi Hals (Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe) Q&A on a poster display "Connections between Harmful Algae Blooms, Toxic Shellfish, and Warming Waters"
- 1:00 Liam Antrim (Olympic Coast National Marine Sanctuary) presents "Ocean Acidification and Impacts on Marine Life in the Pacific Northwest"
- 2:00 Sanctuary staff will share their new ocean acidification hands-on display (great for Kids)
- 3:00 Bill Baccus (Olympic National Park) presents a new video, "Tides of Change", and discusses climate change impacts across the Park, from mountain snowpack to tidepool communities

www.olyclimate.org

June 6th - 7th

OUR OCEANS IN A CHANGING CLIMATE

Entertainment & Enlightenment Hosted By

Olympic Climate Action

Friday, June 6th, 7:30 ~ Admission $10

Featuring Dana Lyons

"A singer-songwriter from Bellingham in the Pete Seeger tradition... best known for 'Cows with Guns.'"

Elwha Klallam Heritage Training Center
Corner Peabody & 1st St., P.A.
(Seating is limited)

Saturday, June 7th, 10am-4pm ~ FREE all day
Port Angeles Waterfront Area

- P.A. Farmer's Market, 10am-12pm: Information & displays, Kids' craft table
- Feiro Marine Life Center, 10am-5pm: Free admission & tours and Kids' activities
- Hollywood Beach (all morning): Sand Castle Contest, judging at 12:15. Sand Castle Contest for Kids with prizes for Best sea creature, Best castle, and Best use of natural items found on the beach

The Landing Mall 2nd floor, 10am-4pm

- Olympic Coast National Marine Sanctuary "Discovery Room:" Open (and free) all day
- 2nd floor Conference Room:
- 11:00 Matt Krogh (ForestEthics, Bellingham) presents "How Fossil Fuel Exports Threaten our Marine Waters"
- 12:30 Hansi Hals (Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe) Q&A on a poster display "Connections between Harmful Algae Blooms, Toxic Shellfish, and Warming Waters"
- 1:00 Liam Antrim (Olympic Coast National Marine Sanctuary) presents "Ocean Acidification and Impacts on Marine Life in the Pacific Northwest"
- 2:00 Sanctuary staff will share their new ocean acidification hands-on display (great for Kids)
- 3:00 Bill Baccus (Olympic National Park) presents a new video, "Tides of Change", and discusses climate change impacts across the Park, from mountain snowpack to tidepool communities

www.olyclimate.org

