

Activity schedule for September 8 Rise for Orca and Climate Justice in Port Angeles

11:00 Beach party at Hollywood Beach.* Potluck/picnic: BBQ and small fire; S'mores ingredients supplied. BYO lunch, chairs, blankets. Music and songs to fill the air. Storytelling and art for kids in the Orca Hut, which will be open throughout the day.

*IN CASE OF INCLEMENT WEATHER, THE PICNIC & BOOTH EVENTS WILL BE HELD UNDER COVER AT THE SIDE OF THE STAGE ON CITY PIER.

12:00 Vigil for the Orca on the beach, a short poem and moment of silence.

12:15 Kayaktivists launch boats for an Invocation on the water, asking protection for our waters and all living things within.

1:00 Speaker presentations in the Feiro Marine Life Center featuring:

- Eric de Place of Sightline Institute, researcher and author of many articles concerning the transport of oil and coal in Puget Sound and potential for oil spills.
- Ken Balcomb, senior scientist and founder of the Center for Whale Research has many years of experience studying Orca and understanding the impacts human activities have upon the Southern Resident Killer Whales.
- Opportunity to ask questions and engage in discussion.

4:00 Conclusion of daytime events

6:30 Doors open at the Elwha Heritage Center, 401 E. First St. Port Angeles, for the presentation of The Road to Athabasca.

7:00 Showtime

9:00 Conclusion of the evening program